SUMMARY

In this Care Group episode, our pastors and leaders share their heart for JPM Church and how you can participate from wherever you live. At the heart of what we do is our Lord Jesus and His precious people. There is so much of His love for us to discover together, and so much of His grace that can reach others through us. From gathering around His Word on Sundays to sharing His love with a friend, we can experience the joy of growing in His love and becoming a blessing to others.

> GRC Online will be known as JPM Church from 2027. Read Pastor Prince's letter to discover the heart behind this next chapter for our church family.

KEY POINTS

1. Get to know Jesus personally and discover His heart for His people.

> "To Timothy, a true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord."
> — 1 Timothy 1:2

At the heart of JPM Church is our Lord Jesus and His precious people. Above all, we want you to know Him personally. Open His Word and ask the Holy Spirit to show you Jesus in what you are facing today. You can draw from His wisdom and receive strength from His love. Knowing His heart for you also opens your eyes to His compassion for those around you.

We grow through relationships within His family too. Paul cared for Timothy as his true son in the faith and helped him grow in his calling. In the same way, spiritual fathers and mothers can share their lives and help others become established in His grace. The love we have received from the Father is something we can share with the people around us and impart to the generations after us.

Reflect & Respond

- How has knowing you are a beloved child of God changed the way you approach Him with your needs?
- Can you recall a time when receiving His love changed how you saw or responded to someone else?

2. Make Sundays a priority and gather around Jesus together.

> "And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching."
> — Hebrews 10:24–25

There is power in gathering around Jesus. We may join from different places and time zones, but His presence and anointing reach beyond that distance. Let's give Sundays their place in our lives and come expecting to receive His Word and see Him move among us. We can bring our needs before Him and stand in faith with one another for breakthroughs.

Beyond Sundays, our live prayer and healing rooms offer opportunities to receive prayer and encouragement. These are opportunities to bring what we are facing before the Lord and receive prayer and encouragement. As we come together around Jesus, we can draw from His wisdom and supply, trusting Him to minister to us personally.

3. Be an ambassador of His grace, right where you are.

> “Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ’s behalf, be reconciled to God.”
> — 2 Corinthians 5:20

The Lord can work through you to reach people our pastors and leaders may never meet personally. Ask Him to show you His heart for them and lead you to opportunities to share His love. Paul shared both the gospel and his own life with believers who had become dear to him (1 Thess. 2:8). That same personal care can begin with inviting one person for coffee and taking time to listen. A prayer or a truth you share could bring fresh hope to their heart.

This is how we live a life larger than ourselves: by becoming a channel of His love to others. Even while we are believing for our own breakthroughs, we can pray for someone else. We draw from the fullness we receive in Jesus and discover that we, too, are refreshed as we bless others. As Proverbs 11:25 NIV reminds us, “whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.”
